

A Room Swept White

Reading Group Questions

1. Do you think Helen, Rachel and Sarah were innocent or guilty of murdering their babies?
2. Is Dr Judith Duffy a sympathetic character?
3. Once you find out who the murderer is, and the motive, do you empathise with that character or not?
4. The novel takes an anti-judgemental approach, and seems to be in favour of second chances. Do you approve or disapprove of this stance?
5. Is Laurie Nattrass a force for good in the novel, or not?
6. How does Fliss change as the story progresses?